LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

The Junior Club will give a picnic at the iron bridge on the Danville pike to-day.

A negro named Jeff Francis was adjudged a lunatic in Judge Robinson's court and taken to the Lexington Asylum by W. A. Arnold.

The negro Jack Chatterwood, who was shot by one of the sheriff's posse that went after Frank Turner, died from the effects of his wound Friday night.

The Tolinson Democratic Club was reorganized Friday night. On motion of Judge M. D. Hughes, a committee was appointed to solicit new members. The club is in a flourishing condition.

One night last week some scoundrels poisoned a fine bird dog and a water spaniel belonging to our young friend, Saulie Hughes. Any person mean enough to do an act like this ought to be given a dose of his own medicine.

Mr. Bob McKee, of Danville, was here Sunday. Misses Florence Jenkins and Mamie Dunn, of Danville, are visiting Miss Maud Robinson. Miss Marguerite Miller is visiting friends in Danville. Mr. J. K. Faulkner, Jr., of Lawrenceburg, was here Friday and Saturday. Miss Kate Kinaird is the guest of Miss Mamie Cecil at Danville. Mrs. R. E. McRoberts and daughter, Lettie, are visiting in Hopkinsville. Mrs. Fannie Benton and family left Friday for Kanawha City, their future home.

Last Thursday night about 11:30 the fine new livery stables of A. C. Myers were discovered to be on fire. In less time than it takes to tell it, the entire rear portion of the main building was so enveloped in flames that it was impossible to save the live head of horses that were in the stalls. Quite a number of Mr. Myers' horses and buggies had been hired to young folks to attend the party at Miss Maud Robinson's and thus escaped being consumed by the flames. The building, stock, &c., were insured. The handsome new hotel of Capt. W. S. Miller had another very narrow escape. It is thought that the north wall will have to be rebuilt. The large plate glass in the show windows of Pascoe's confectionery were broken by the heat. The furniture in the hotel was damaged by the hasty and careless removal. A fine young stallion, a hungry and harness belonging to Deputy Sheriff Eli Lawson were consumed in the stable. His loss is very heavy, as he had no insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown and it was evidently the work of an incendiary. It is Mr. Myers' intention to rebuild at once.

POLITICS IN THE MOUNTAINS.

(To the Editor Interior Journal.)

BARDOWVILLE, Oct. 3.—The race for Commonwealth's Attorney in this the 27th judicial district seems to be exciting even more interest than that for circuit judge and quite as much as the congressional contest, if possible. Messrs. John G. Matthews, of Knox, Sam H. Kash, of Clay, W. L. Brown, of Laurel, W. P. Bentz, of Leslie, and Wm. Clark, of Jackson, all ask to be made Commonwealth's Attorney, but to whom the nomination will fall can not now be determined. Matthews has Knox with 14 votes, Brown has Laurel with 14, Bentz has Letcher with six, Clark has Jackson with 10, and Kash has Clay with 14 which Matthews is contesting but it is thought by parties who ought to know that Kash will receive his own county when the convention assembles. Kash also has Jackson promised on second choice and Owsley instructed for him second.

In the 26th Judicial District composed of Bell, Harlan, Letcher and Perry the anti-slavery convention convened at Harlan C. H. last Friday. M. J. Moss and E. Hurst, of Bell, and Napoleon French, of Harlan, are candidates for judge, which race seems to be exciting the most interest. French has 11 instructed votes, Moss 10 and Hurst 8, there being only 30 votes in the district.

Col. Clark will be nominated for judge by the republicans in this district with opposition. Holt Blair, of Letcher, Henry L. Howard and J. Grant Forister, of Harlan, want to be Commonwealth's Attorney of that district. L. D. S.

The Lexington Trotting Races will begin to-morrow and last till the 11th, with its Futurity, Stallion Representative and other large stakes, worth from $5,000 to $10,000 each. They again take the lead by inaugurating the novelty of mile, 1½ mile and 1 mile and 100 yards dash races, in which fleet trotters and pacers with records of from 2:10 to 2:15 will contest for larger purses than are offered at running tracks and these races promise to be of the highest order. In addition to this, all the great performers or this wonderful record-breaking year will be seen at this meeting fighting for the heats and the money.

The heaviest eight-wheel passenger engine in America was sent out of the Union Pacific shops, Omaha, Friday, to pull the fast mail. With tender coaled up the engine weighs 218,000 pounds. It will run between Cheyenne and Laramie over the continental divide where a grade of 9% feet to the mile has to be surmounted.

DANVILLE.

H. E. Samuel has sold his handsome residence on Broadway to C. R. Anderson for $5,750, possession to be given in ten days.

Mrs. Mattie H. Hackney, wife of J. M. Hackney, died Sunday evening at 2 o'clock, after a long illness. The physicians were undecided as to the cause of death, which they were inclined to think was from the effects of rheumatism. Mrs. Hackney was 56 years old, was a good woman and had been a member of the Baptist church for many years. Funeral Monday at 3 o'clock; services by Rev. J. W. Lynch.

The new public school was opened Monday morning with 160 pupils in attendance. This number will be largely increased within the next few days. Rev. E. H. Pierce opened the dedicatory exercises with prayer, after which appropriate speeches were made by Messrs. John W. Yerkes, J. M. Worrall, E. H. Pierce, B. P. Jacobs, J. M. Meyer and others. The building is a splendid one, constructed according to the latest and best views in regard to light, air, heating, ventilation and healthfulness generally. Prof. W. C. Grinstead is principal and Misses Ella Barker and Lucy Welsh are assistants.

Bill Drye concluded to go no further with his case and was before court adjourned Saturday sentenced to eight years' confinement in the penitentiary. It will be remembered that he killed Hiram Cowan last June. The evidence against him at both the examining and final trials was not very damaging to the accused and the severity of the verdict can best be accounted for by his general character for insolence and viciousness. Mrs. Mollie Mullins, formerly Lauckart, received a divorce from Wm. Mullins and was awarded the custody of her two children. In a suit for a settlement of business affairs Levi Little was given a judgment for $491 against W. B. Cecil. In the suit of R. H. C. Mitchell vs. the L. & N. railroad for destroying his residence and out buildings by sparks from locomotive, the jury disagreed 9 to 3 in favor of the plaintiff. Amount claimed, $3,100.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Hugh Miller and Miss Mary Coyle, says the Courier-Journal, eloped from Mt. Vernon and were married in Jeffersonville.

Miss Virginia Standiford, daughter of the late Dr. Standiford, of Louisville, and a very beautiful woman, was married last week to John Caperton, who is also a millionaire.

James L. Babcock, of Ann Arbor, who was left a fortune of millions by his uncle, on condition that he marry within five years, was married last week to Miss Butler, of Waukesha. The ladies, who thought the provisions were cruelly exacting, did everything they could to help the poor thing out of the dilemma.

No invitations are out yet, but we have it pretty straight that Mr. R. C. Ford, the clever cashier of the First National Bank, of London, and Miss Emma Garrard, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Gen. T. T. Garrard, of Manchester, will become one after God's holy ordinance, on Thursday, Nov. 10th. May their fondest hopes be realized.

The anti-slavery in New York city held a meeting Sunday at which it was decided to put out a third ticket.

Mr. Cleveland will attend the great club convention in New York today and make a few remarks to encourage the boys.

The Olympic Club at New Orleans took in $101,657.80 during the prize fight season of three nights, $12,619.92 of which was clear.

It has only been 81 years since the first tomatoes were introduced in America. The original plant was cultivated as a vegetable curiosity at Salem, Mass.

Moses Kahn purchased in the North Middleton neighborhood 177 export cattle weighing from 1,510 to 1,648 lbs. at from 4½ to 1,373.—Paris Kentucky.

Col. John M. Fanikner, superintendent, has been ordered to advertise bids for the excavation of the $75,000 government building to be erected at Richmond.

In the city election at Covington the democrats elected all the more important officers, but in Newport the republicans made nearly a clean sweep, electing Geo. H. Ablering to succeed Mr. Berry as Mayor.

J. T. Hugely bought of C. W. Carpenter, of Lincoln county, the finely-bred, 7-year-old mare, Alma R., by Red Wilkes, dam by Ericsson, and her filly foal by Nullor, a son of Sultrn, for $1,500.

Commissioner Nicholas McDowell's report for September says the Burley tobacco districts show a percentage of 75, while taking the State as a whole the percentage is 88; pastures are generally good, averaging fully 90 per cent.; late rains did the corn crop much good and raised its percentage to 95. The sorghum crop is about 77 per cent., hemp only 63, fruit 65 and potatoes 61.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

Bob Hunting's circus is advertised to be here Saturday, 8th.

Carpenters are at work remodeling his depot and putting it in better shape in various ways.

One of the horse traders in the Gypsy camp near here lost a valuable mare in the Jackson livery stable Saturday. She choked herself to death with the rope she was tied with.

W. H. Holt, candidate on the republican ticket for judge of the Court of Appeals, will speak here Oct. 5th and electors Napoleon B. Hays and E. K. Wilson will cross swords Oct. 10th.

Dr. McKee, of Danville, and others are here for the purpose of establishing a Presbyterian college at this place, offering to give $1 for every two the count-

—Conductor Cook and brakeman Maroney, both of the Cumberland Valley branch, had a difficulty at Corbin Friday in which the conductor was hit in the back of the head with a two-pound rock and the brakeman shot in the neck and abdomen.

The democrats of Laurel county are requested to assemble in the hall over Jackson's drug store on Monday, Oct. 10, county court day, at 1 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of selecting candidates for circuit court clerk and for sheriff of Laurel county. Our candidates will have to be selected by Oct. 15, or their names will not be printed on the ballots under the new law. John Pearl, Chairman; W. J. Lutton, Secretary.

Friday the county instructed for Hon. W. L. Brown for Commonwealth Attorney. At the meeting in Clay county the same day no instructions were given but Matthews, of Knox, received the majority of votes. At the convention pistols were drawn, one mangnifying shot in the leg accidentally. Sam Kash, one of the candidates, was choked, and the blankest time ever seen in any convention probably ever held in Kentucky, according to the report of Brit Davis, of that county, who is here on his way to Louisville. Matthews has carried Knox, Jackson, Owlsley and Clay and will be the next Commonwealth's Attorney.

HAYDEN STATION.

Dr. Amon reports several cases of typhoid fever at Mr. Adams'.

A beef club has been organized here and nothing less than 800-pounds are to be slain.

E. B. Beazley sold to J. W. Adams a lot of young cattle at 2 to 2½. J. M. Beazley sold to J. H. Yeager a livery horse for $125.

Another Goshen man has gotten left. He thought he was going to marry a Crab Orchard girl but she went back on him even after the preacher had been engaged.

C. M. Spoonamore, our boss trader, has made the following trades: Sold to Prewitt & Wood 19 head of cattle averaging 1,100 pounds at 2½ to 3 cents; to Elkin 20 good hogs at 4 to 4½ cents; bought of R. L. Porter a bunch of cattle averaging 700 pounds at 2 cents; engaged to Prewitt & Wood a bunch of heifer calves at $8; sold to J. H. Peppes a nice buggy mare, 2 years old, at $125; one to A. F. Moberly at $75; he sold Gilmore, of Boyle 7 good mule colts at $40. R. E. Gaines bought of C. Vanoy and Grove Kennedy an extra good bunch of shorthorns weighing 100 pounds at 4 to 4½ cents.

HUBBLE.

Bro. Taylor's lessons of love and freedom still draw large crowds to the schoolhouse, with three confessions here and two at the church up to this writing.

Robert Earls bought some good young mountain stock ewes of G. A. Swinebroad at $2. K. L. Hubble has been loaning out some nice sheep for half of the lambs and wool. Embanks Bros. sold some cattle to Prewitt & Woods, averaging 1,100 at 3.85.

Mrs. Martha Holtzclaw and little daughter have returned to their home in Missouri. Dr. Lewis reports Charley Blanks convalescent. Virgil McClure and wife, of Lexington, gave his sister, Mrs. J. A. Hammonds, a pleasant call last Friday night. S. Dunbar is having a nice yard fence put around his beautiful dwelling. Mrs. Fannie Gentry has been spending a few days at Kingsville. Miss Susie Gentry is visiting friends at Harrodsburg this week. Mrs. Lucy Gardner and daughter have returned to their home in Missouri.

Col. John M. Fanikner, superintendent, has been ordered to advertise bids for the excavation of the $75,000 government building to be erected at Richmond.

A convention of the republicans of the 13th judicial district is hereby called to meet in Danville, Ky., on Thursday, Oct. 20, '92, for the nomination of candidates for Judge and Commonwealth Attorney for said district. G. N. JEAN, W. K. CALDWELL, Sec.

"No, Mr. Gilgal," she said kindly, "I am sure I could never learn to love you."

"Oh, maybe you could," rejoined Gilgal, cheerfully. "Never too old to learn, you know."

Jeannette—Does Miss Boardman get her lovely complexion from her father or her mother?

Gladys (sweetly)—From her father. He's in the drug business.

Will Hays bought of B. W. Gaines 50 ewes, at 5c.

HUSTONVILLE.

The farmers are busy cutting corn. They think the yield will be fairly good.

A crowd of the sports will go down to Casey on a fishing excursion this week.

John Reid has opened a grocery store in the room adjoining Dr. Hawkins Brown and is selling goods right and left.

A rank "Sheeny" named J. Sod-non is disposing of a lot of motion goods in the room formerly occupied by Mrs. W. R. Williams. He seems to be selling lots of goods.

W. D. Weatherford bought of the Thomas Reynolds estate five shares of stock in the National Bank of this place at $142.50. This is the highest price that has yet been paid for that stock.

John Goode and Jim Allen are thinking of platting their lands lying on the Bradfordsville pike near town and disposing of a number of building lots. The next thing you hear of these enterprising gentlemen they will be talking of putting in electric lights and water works.

Mrs. Helen Reid leaves to-day for Somerset, where she will go into the millinery business. Mrs. D. S. Carpenter, of Somerset, is the guest of the family of Mr. G. D. Weatherford. Miss Mary Lusk has returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wright, of Calera, Ala., are visiting her mother, Mrs. Bradley. Charlie Adams left last week for Longview, Ala., to go into business. Mrs. Ella Kauffman, of Lancaster, is visiting her relative, Mrs. Polly Kauffman. Mrs. Fred Harris and Miss Kate Helm, of Danville, have been the guests of Mrs. Thomas Robinson.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The W. C. T. U. State convention will meet at Covington to-day and continue in session three days. The railroads give low rates.

Revs. Ben Helm and W. E. Arnold are holding a meeting this week at McKendree. The hours for preaching are 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m.

The Synod of Kentucky will meet in Louisville Oct. 12. Besides other matters, the question of locating a theological school will be considered.

Revs. M. N. Early and A. J. Daugherty are conducting a protracted meeting at Neel's Creek which had resulted in a dozen or more additions to Sunday.

The service at the Methodist church next Saturday morning will begin at 10:30 instead of 11 o'clock. Rev. H. P. Walker will preach at that hour and at 7 p. m.

The meeting held by Rev. Tharpe closed at Hustonville with 35 additions, including Dr. Hawkins Brown, who was such a good man before that everybody thought him a church member.

Atlanta boasts of the finest Young Men's Christian Association building south of Philadelphia. It is five stories high, including the basement, and has three fronts, thus giving it good light from three sides. The cost was $100,000.

Rev. J. O. Rust, who had been holding a meeting at the Baptist church for two weeks, left for his home in Bardstown Saturday. The visible results of his work were 16 additions to the church and the membership acknowledges to a lasting good. Mr. Rust is one of the finest young preachers in the State. His sermons were models of eloquence and convincing arguments and by his gentle demeanor both in and outside the church he won many friends here, who will always remember him with their prayers and good wishes.

TRY THIS.

It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good if you have a cough, cold or any trouble with throat, chest or lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery is a safe and reliable medicine. Those who have tried it to relieve or money will be paid back. Sufferers from La Grippe found it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and perfect recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. Trial bottle free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large size 50 cents and $1.

Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Buckeye Arnicia Salve and his leg was healed at last. John Spangler, Catonsville, Ohio, had five large sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Buckeye Arnicia Salve cured him entirely. Sold at A. R. Penny's drug store.

Castoria.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassell, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away and he was terribly distressed and almost lost strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - OCTOBER 4, 1892

W. P. WALTON.

SIX : PAGES.
EVERY FRIDAY.

It seems that our friend Hallam is determined to do the Moses act always — get in sight of the promised land and never reach it. Two years ago he came within a fraction of getting the democratic nomination for Congress in the 6th district, and this time a poor little half of a vote would have insured him a seat in the House at Washington, but he couldn't get that and throwing his strength to Albert S. Berry, as he did to Dickerson in 1880, he dictated the nomination, though unable to get it himself. The nomination was made on the 372d ballot, after all the machinations known to politics. Col. Berry, the nominee, is a typical Kentuckian, being about 6 feet 4 inches and well proportioned. He is a man of much force and when he made his canvass for the gubernatorial nomination against Gov. Buckner, he secured many friends who will be glad that the crowning point of his ambition will at last be reached. He is bold and aggressive and will likely be heard from in Congress.

The conservative men of the House, who wanted to leave no question of the validity of the passage of the election bill, succeeded after two attempts in getting it re-enacted by a constitutional majority. Speaker Moore and his little coterie of friends voted against it both times, claiming that the bill had already had a legal passage. The question is too important a one to have any question about it and it was the part of wisdom to leave no doubt. The speaker and his friends might have voted for the re-enactment without compromising any of their pride of opinion or reflecting at all on themselves.

While en route to New York from Buzzard's Bay on a steamer, Mrs. Goddard, a Kentucky lady, sent a glass of wine to Mr. Cleveland with her compliments and expressed a wish for his continued good health and his success in the campaign. The ex-president arose, bowed his acknowledgements, touched the glass to his lips, but did not drink. He asked to be excused, as he had decided to drink no intoxicants during the present struggle. The announcement was greeted with enthusiastic applause. What do the prohibitionists want with a better man than that?

All his friends of the newspaper world are glad to know that Mr. Walter P. Emerson has decided to accept a flattering offer to become the editor of the Covington Commonwealth. His light is too bright to be hid under the bushel of a weekly paper and we congratulate Bro. Casey on the wisdom of the selection. In parting with Capt. Sam Gaines the paper says that his resignation was for the purpose of entering a more lucrative field than journalism and adds "there is no field of effort that he will not grace."

The Danville Democrat has a timely article urging the friends of Judge Breckinridge, who are dissatisfied with the nomination of Judge Saufley, to put personal feelings aside and submit to the will of the majority. "Judge Breckinridge, loyal and true as he is to the democratic party, has bowed gracefully to the inevitable and signified on more than one occasion his willingness to do all that could be expected of him and more, and the most loyal of his followers should do no less."

R. C. BLANDFORD, finding the publication of the Somerset Republican an uphill and losing business, and a little dangerous since he espoused the cause of David G. Colson for Congress, announces in its last issue its suspension. The man who attempted to run a republican newspaper in Kentucky has a pretty tough row to hoe. A great majority of republicans are not readers and those that are prefer to get their news, if not their views, from wide-awake democratic papers.

They are beginning to find eggs with "G. C." on them, which is a sure sign that Grover is going to be elected. A young domineering bullet belonging to Miss Louella Halle, near Riverton, laid an egg last week with those letters in raised characters on the end. Her father, who has been a rabid republican, says that's enough for him and that he will put in his ballot for the man of destiny.

The Homestead strikers are confronted with a new and startling charge, that of treason against the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in firing on those sent to protect property rights. Warrants have been issued for 33 members of the strikers' advisory committee and five arrests have already been made.

Speaker Case believes in reciprocity. Congressman Ellis voted for him for Speaker and now he is going to help him beat Pettit. He will speak at three points in his district beginning Oct. 10. He is said to be a very captivating and convincing orator.

The Supreme Court of Iowa believes in letting a woman who makes her bed hard lie hard. A wife sought divorce on the grounds that her husband was a confirmed drunkard. The proof showed that she had knowledge of his habits before they were married, and the court refused her petition, adding, "You voluntarily chose a drunkard for a husband, and you should discharge the duties of a drunkard's wife. His failure to keep a pledge of reformation made before marriage does not justify your deserting him. Having knowingly married a drunkard you must make yourself content with the sacred relationship." The court is right. A woman rarely ever reforms a drunkard by marrying him. The chances are ten to one that he will be more confirmed in his miserable habit after he has secured the prize. Young ladies should shun a young man who drinks whisky to excess like she would the deadly cobra.

The New York World has caught on to the scheme of the republican boss of that State to buy the vote of New York for Harrison. He is sending out circulars, of which the paper gives a fac-simile, to republicans asking them to send in the name of at least one democrat each that they think is wavering or open to "argument." The argument is to be furnished in bright and shining dollars, forced out of the coffers of protected monopolies. There are not many democrats worthy to be called by the name that are up for purchase and sale, but the boss thinks it is worth while to make the attempt to bribe the "honest voter" and money is going to be used for all it is worth.

The average voter in New York is apt to get things mixed this year under the Australian ballot system. In addition to 36 presidential electors to be chosen there are a Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, 34 Congressmen, 128 Assemblymen, two Supreme Court judges, three county judges, six sheriffs, four surrogates, 10 county clerks, five county treasurers, 34 districts attorneys, and a number of local officers. New York city will elect a Mayor, Register, Superior Court Judge, President of the Board of Alderman and a full Aldermanic Board. In Kentucky a voter is allowed three minutes to cast his ballot. It will take 10 to get through the job in New York.

The Ex Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Whitney, says he feels confident that Mr. Cleveland will carry New York and if he is not elected it will not be because he does not receive the electoral vote of the State. Mr. Cleveland is in the city mixing with the boys who are daily growing more enthusiastic for him. O. O. S., of the Courier-Journal, who is on the ground, predicts that the republicans will abandon the contest in that State, but this is too good to be true and it won't do to be out. All signs point to democratic success in New York but it is not going to be secured except by mighty struggle.

J. W. Smith, who killed his wife at Dunsinuir, Cal., was a clever kind of a cuss. A mob took him from the sheriff and proceeded to hang him. He assisted them all he could in the operation and encouraged them by saying, "Gentlemen I did wrong and deserve it." This is the first case of a murderer feeling the halter draw with good opinion of lynch or any other law.

WEAVER'S record in the South during the war is rotteness than the eggs thrown at him in Georgia. It is surprising that the people he wronged had not been more demonstrative in their feelings against him.

NEWSY NOTES.

The Louisville republicans nominated Gus Willson for Congress.

Fire destroyed the Winslow block, the handsomest in Harriman, Tenn.; loss $20,000.

The Senate committee is opposed, and very justly so, to creating the office of State bank examiner.

The Henderson democrats have raised the tallest democratic flag pole in the State. It is 198 feet high.

The Advocate says Mr. O. R. Pipes, aged 57, died Thursday. He leaves a widow and several children.

The republicans have put up T. L. Hardin in the 7th district for Congressman Breckinridge to knock down.

Hon. Asher G. Caruth was renominated for Congress by the democratic Congressional committee of the 5th district.

Col. Thomas L. Jones, county clerk of Campbell county, has been indicted on the charge of misappropriating $5,751.11.

The signal station on the summit of Pike's Peak, the highest point of observation in the U. S., was burned Friday night.

The Pineville Land Company has at last been thrown into the hands of a receiver.

Capt. Andrews has completed his solitary voyage across the Atlantic in a dory, having arrived safely in Huelva, Spain.

Attorney General Hendricks in one of his diurnal opinions says that a county clerk cannot also be trustee of the joint fund.

According to official returns the republican plurality in the recent election in Maine was only 12,512, against 18,883 two years ago.

George Armstrong killed Kate Davis with a sledge hammer near Taylerville. He was the father of her unborn child and killed her to save exposure.

Dr. Douglass, the famous throat specialist, who attended Gen. Grant during his last illness, died in Washington from the same trouble that carried off the ex-President.

Miss Nora Tingle, of Georgetown, sued the C. N. O. & T. P. railroad for $5,000 for carrying her past the station and refusing to take her back. It was compromised for $500.

The Blackburn Club gave a big barbecue at Croppers, Shelby county, Saturday, which was attended by 5,000 people. Gov. Brown, Senator Blackburn and others made speeches.

The steamer H. W. Whitney was run down and sunk in Boston harbor by the steamer Otoman. The loss is estimated at $400,000 to $450,000. The crew of 37 men were saved by tugs.

John W. Hughes, of Mercer, was appointed delegate, and T. F. Poynter, of Shelby, alternate to the National Convention of democratic clubs which meets in New York to day and to-morrow.

Philadelphia is suffering an epidemic of diphtheria, a disease that physicians have pronounced more fatal than cholera. For the three weeks ending last Saturday there were 70 diphtheria deaths.

Samuel Clay, a young Kentuckian, is wanted by the New York police for stealing $8,200 from Thomas H. Shannon, a Lexington bookmaker, who has been making a book at the Eastern race tracks.

W. W. Windle broke Zimmerman's two-mile world's bicycle record at Hampden Park. Zimmerman's mark was 4:37 2-5, which was lowered to 4:28 3-5 by the Millbury lad. The record is official.

W. Y. Fultz, of Carter county, committed suicide by taking poison. His wife deserted him three weeks ago, after a honeymoon of just one month, and her action preyed on his mind until death alone could relieve him.

The long distance telephone from New York to South Bend, Ind., was tested most satisfactorily. A whisper at this end was distinctly heard at Pittsburgh, and in New York ordinary tones of voice were clearly heard.

It is said that Louisville parties have bought the Internont Hotel at Big Stone Gap and that there is still great confidence in the future of the place. There is not a vacant house in the town and there is a demand for a number of others. The population has increased 500 in the last few months.

The State League of Democratic Clubs met at Lexington Friday and selected delegates and alternates to attend the convention of the National Association in New York city. Hon. M. C. Alfred was re-elected president of the League, and Hon. J. A. Sullivan, of Richmond, the vice-president for this congressional district.

Mr. C. J. Hamlin's famous black filly, Midnight Chimes, dropped dead on the Mystic Park track, at Boston. She was valued at $25,000.

FOR SALE.—15 extra two-year old feeders, weighing about 1,100 lbs. Apply to R. H. Bronaugh, Crab Orchard, Ky.

Reed Bros., of Fayette, bought a car-load of fat hogs at 4½, a car-load of fat heifers at 3 to 3½ and sold a lot of fat lambs at 5c.—Gazette.

Robert Bonner will not give Nancy Hanks the $5,000 promised. He says the race was to be made on a grand circuit track and to the old-fashioned sulky.

Montie Fox bought of several parties in Wayne county seven mare mules four to six years old, from $110 to $165 for the New Orleans market.—Democrat.

W. L. Herrin, of Crab Orchard, bought of B. D. Holtzclaw 16 head of mountain heifers at 2 cents and a dory, having arrived safely in Huelva, Spain.

Attorney General Hendricks in one of his diurnal opinions says that a county clerk cannot also be trustee of the joint fund.

According to official returns the republican plurality in the recent election in Maine was only 12,512, against 18,883 two years ago.

STANFORD, KY., OCTOBER 4 1892

R. C. WALTON, Bus. Manager

MEANS BUSINESS.

ENGRAVING beautifully and artistically done at A. R. Penny's.

BuY your books and school supplies of all kinds from A. R. Penny, who sells them at publisher's prices.

HAVE your watch, clock and jewelry repaired at A. R. Penny's. All work warranted.

REMEMBER that all silverware, watches, rings, etc., bought at A. R. Penny's will be engraved free of charge.

PERSONAL POINTS.

MR. W. W. WHITE and wife have moved to the Albright property.

COL. CORY OATTS, of Monticello, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. P. Davis.

Mrs. MARY W. BOWMAN, of Lexington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. Reid.

REV. T. H. CAMPBELL, of Waco, was the guest of Rev. R. B. Mahony a few days.

Mrs. BETTIE McROBERTS FRITH, of Brodhead, has been visiting relatives here.

Mrs. AMERICA BOUT has gone to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Owens, at Harrodsburg.

GEN. R. M. GANO, wife and Mrs. Clara Helm Gano and children started back to Dallas, Texas, Saturday.

Mr. J. C. JONES left yesterday for the University of Virginia to take the law course in that famous institution.

Mr. HIRAM GREGORY, of Grayson, is here to see a mighty attractive young lady, who used to teach music there.

Mrs. B. W. GAINES and Mrs. H. M. Ballou leave Wednesday for a visit of two weeks to relatives in Shellyville.

CAPT. AND MRS. R. D. THOMPSON have gone to Louisville to live. The captain will run on the Main Line hereafter.

Miss MARY MCKINNEY of Stanford, is the guest of Miss Minerva Phelps at Dreaming Creek Heights—Richmond Register.

Mr. R. M. JACKSON, of London, a democrat and consequently a first-class gentleman, was here Friday on horseback.

Miss LELIA CLAY ALLEN, of Peabody, N. C. arrived Friday. Her mother, a relative of Prof. Hubbard, has phoned her in his charge to remain till she is educated.

Miss MARY RICE, of Washington City, and Miss Ora Willmore, who has spent the summer with her, passed up to Crab Orchard yesterday to visit their mother, Mrs. F. W. Dillon.

PROF. W. S. HURCH, of the Crab Orchard school, was down Saturday. He has an enrollment of 72 pupils and the average attendance last month was 58. Miss Leah Stegar assists him.

Mrs. BRUCE JONES and children, of St. Louis, who spent the summer at her father's, Mr. John M. Reid, left for home Friday, accompanied by Mrs. Dr. Hugh Reid and son, who will spend a couple of weeks with her.

Mr. M. B. RAYMOND, the clever general agent of Hunting's Shows, was here with his advertising car yesterday, making arrangements for the performances on the 10th. He tells us that he is going to give us one of the best shows ever in Stanford.

Miss ELICE S. WHITMAN, of Pulaski City, Va., will be at the College Saturday to enter upon her duties as teacher in the literary department and assistant in music. Miss Whitman is a teacher of experience, who was graduated some time ago at Martha Washington College and the Conservatory of Music. She has paid special attention to music and the natural sciences and comes well endorsed as a splendid young lady and a fine teacher.

CITY AND VICINITY.

HUNTING'S enormous shows will visit us Oct. 10th.

LEAVE your order for timothy with McKinney Bros.

Just received a nice lot of fall and winter cloaks. S. H. Shanks.

We spell nearly all our stock with the letter "C" and that means cheap. J. S. Hughes.

STANFORD is to have a circus the first for many moons. It comes highly recommended.

ELEGANT assortment of cloaks and wraps just received at S. H. Shanks'. Call and see them before the stock is broken.

I INVITE the attention of the ladies to my new and elegant stock of millinery just received from the cities. Miss Annie Wray.

The speakers are going to swoop down on the people like a thousand bricks next Saturday. See small bills and give them all a rousing reception.

A DEMOCRATIC club, to be known as the James B. McCreary Club, has been organized at Richmond with 150 members. We ought to have a club here. Who will take the initiative?

SKULL CRACKED.—A message to this paper from Crab Orchard says that Will Sward, a trilling white fellow, had his skull fractured last night about 10 o'clock by a negro, Jim Buford; both drinking. Sward will probably die.

NEW line Zeigler shoes at S. H. Shanks'.

Eggs wanted at B. K. & W. H. Wearens at 15 cents.

LEAVE your orders for stove repairs at McKinney Bros'.

To LOAN.—$4,000 on real estate security. Address Box 10, Lancaster, Ky.

FOR SALE.—Cottage on Mill street. Apply at Interior Journal office.

The best selected stock of silverware and jewelry at Danks', the Jeweler.

Tucorens will exhibit just West of the city in the large field now used by Mr. Warren as a pasture.

I HAVE a very full line of fall and winter mittens. Come at once and make selections. H. C. Ripley.

SEE our elegant new line of dress goods and trimmings in all grades. Many things not to be seen elsewhere. Severance & Son.

CHANGE OF DAY.—I have changed the date of the sale of my furniture, &c., to Friday afternoon, Oct. 7, at 2 p. m. See ad. W. P. Walton.

We have now opened and invite you to inspect the largest and completest stock of dry goods, notions, &c., ever seen in our city. Severance & Son.

The fire company was to have been organized last night. There will be 30 besides the chief, I. M. Brice, ten for each reel and ten for the hook and ladder.

HORT HAYDEN asks us to say that S. L. Blakemore and Miss Annie Bright, a worthy colored couple from Crab Orchard, were married at his home Friday night.

I HAVE engaged Mrs. Fauna Edmiston for the season and invite her friends and patrons to call and see my stock of millinery, which is full and complete. Miss Annie Wray.

HAVING quit the mercantile business, I am compelled to settle up accounts. If you owe me call and settle. All accounts will be placed with a collector after a few weeks. J. B. Foster.

The Sheriff of Leslie, G. H. Steele, took Henry Brown, accused of assassinating one of a sheriff's posse, who has been in jail here for several months, to Hyden, Friday, where his trial is set for today.

TO TEACHERS.—I understand that the money due to teachers in October will arrive this week. If so, next Saturday, 8th, will be pay day. I will be at my office in Stanford that day. W. E. McCay.

The commander of the Stanford Post, Rev. Walter Lackey, requests us to say that the G. A. R. rally, to occur on the 8th, will not be partisan, but is simply for their financial aid and pleasure. Neither Capt. Herndon nor Hon. G. M. Davison are expected to orate on that occasion.

DEATH.—Andrew McMahan died Sunday night at Rowland of typhoid fever, leaving a wife and five little girls in destitute circumstances. The bed upon which he died had to be burned and that constituted nearly all of his property. The county had to take charge of his remains.

MISS OLIVIA W. SUMMERS' class in elocution is preparing to celebrate Columbus day with an appropriate entertainment at Walton's Opera House. Rehearsals have already commenced and the young ladies intend to be thoroughly up with their parts before appearing before the footlights.

A dozen or more young couples took Prof. Danks' orchestra out to the home of Messrs. E. R. and J. B. Gentry, on Friday evening and had a most delightful time. Dancing was enjoyed till a late hour and the oil bachelors, who should have been Beneditos a score of years ago, proved themselves splendid hosts.

JAILLED.—J. N. Menefee placed in jail here Thursday night, Jim Padgett and Dora Lockman, who were tried at Waynesburg and held over till circuit court on the charge of stealing a spring wagon and four hogs. They are a tough looking pair, but are very affectionate and the separation caused by their being placed in different cells seems to seriously trouble both of them.

In a talk with a Louisville Times man, Prof. Seibert, who furnishes nearly all the dance music in that city, says: "The latest thing in dances is a sort of Gayotte, in waltz time, with three waltz and three schottische steps. This is being danced in Chicago, Pittsburgh, New York and generally in the Eastern cities. It will hardly become popular here because Louisville people are conservative and stick to waltz and polka steps."

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE now has 104 pupils enrolled and two post-graduates. The school was never in better condition and justly claims to be one of the best disciplined institutions in the State. The boarding department is unsurpassed in fare and service. Prof. Hubbard says that while he does not propose to cut his already reasonable rates for board, he is able to offer inducements to two or more boarding pupils from the same family.

WALTON'S sale will be Friday, 7th, instead of Saturday.

TWENTH-FIVE or more weddings this fall. See Danks, the Jeweler, for appropriate presents.

If you desire to see the most stylish line of ladies' cloaks and gent's and boys' clothing come and see us. J. S. Hughes.

Mrs. B. C. PENNYBAKER will apply next Monday for license to keep hotel at Kingsville with the privileges of retailing liquors.

No one else need apply. The sack of seed wheat sent us by Hon. D. B. Edmiston was divided up in two quart lots and taken by farmers before it could be gotten from the depot to this office.

NOW ON SALE more than 300 new ladies', misses' and children's cloaks, purchased direct from the manufacturers, which we will offer at prices so low that t will astonish you. Severance & Son.

Jim Thompson came down from Mt. Vernon on the local Friday afternoon and proceeded to quench his thirst with "red eye." He became a little hoisterous and was judged by Marshal Newland, Judge Carson fined him $5 and costs.

Those who won't clean up their premises will be made to do so. Marshal Newland has tried moral suasion with little effect. This morning he will invoke the strong arm of the law by swearing out warrants against 15 housekeepers.

The camp-followers, fakirs and robbers so often found in town on circuit days are not permitted to indulge in their skin games on the day Hunting's show exhibits. Mr. Hunting prides himself on the honesty of his show and will permit nothing that will in the least reflect on his amusement enterprise.

Mr. Eric C. Gaines, our Logan's Creek correspondent, shot a gray eagle Monday morning that measured 7 feet 4 from tip to tip. Mr. Gaines only broke a tip of his wing and had quite a lively tussle before he was captured. He tore several holes in his clothing and had he not been wounded would have come out first best in the fight.

Mr. J. S. Hughes tells us that a number of boys, who ought to be ashamed of themselves, were caught stealing his grapes from the vines Sunday night at an hour that they should have been at church. He knows the names of every one, but refrains prosecuting them or publishing their names on account of their families. He will not be so lenient, however, if it ever happens again.

Mr. James B. McCreary, romancer of the democratic party in the Eighth District, for Representative in Congress, will address the people at the following times and places: Taylorsville, Saturday, Oct. 8, Shellyville, Monday, Oct. 10, Danville, Monday, Oct. 17; Stanford, Saturday, Oct. 22; Mt. Vernon, Monday, Oct. 24; Annville, Tuesday, Oct. 25; McKee, Wednesday, Oct. 26; Nicholasville, Saturday, Oct. 29; Richmond, Monday, Nov. 7. Speaking at 1 o'clock each day.

ROBERT LEE DAVIS returned to Crab Orchard the other day and as the report goes a number of citizens got together to force him to leave the place. Mr. D. G. Slaughter expressed his hostility to such mode of procedure and said if John McClure had been dishonored by Davis it was his right to take a shot gun and go and kill him. Saturday afternoon Slaughter was halted as he returned from his springs, as he writes, by Joe McClure and a man named Napier from Maywood, who asked him "What the hell he had to do with the matter?" He explained that he was against kluxching and after they had detained him five minutes or more he was allowed to depart. Yesterday McClure came in and apologized but Mr. Slaughter said he would not accept an apology but would prosecute both to the extent of the law, as he should do.

Mr. Eugene Kelly offers his farm of 50 acres for sale. Address him at Stanford.

It is stated on good authority that W. Q. Gresham will vote for Cleveland.

It is not unusual for colds contracted in fall to continue all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A 50 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will do much for so small an amount. This remedy is intended especially for bad colds, a cold group and especially for colds with a chronic cough.

There is no use of any suffering with the cholera when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a short time and cure a short time. I have tried and know it. W. H. Clinton Helmetta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. Walter Leland, a prominent merchant of Jamesport, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery, probably one of the best things ever made. Formulated by Dr. M. L. Bourne, Druggist and Optician, Stanford, Ky.

The sheriff's posse, called to quell an insurrection of blacks near Bobo, Miss., found them organized and heavily armed. Two of the negroes were killed and several others mortally wounded.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J. created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera, but a violent dysentery which is almost as severe as cholera. ### HER FAVORITE HYMN.

I love to steal awhile away
From every cumbering care;
And spend the hours of settling day
In humble, grateful prayer.

I love in solitude to dwell
The penitential tear;
And all His promises to plead
Where none but God can hear.

I love to think on mercies past
And future good implore;
And all my cares and sorrows cast
On Him Whom I adore.

I love by faith to take a view
Of brighter scenes in Heaven,
The prospect does my strength renew
While here by tempests driven.

Thus when life's toilsome day is o'er
May its departing ray
Be calm as this impressive hour
And head the endless day.

(From the selections of the editor's dear dead wife, and printed in loving memory of her.)

CORNS AND WARTS.—Turpentine rubbed on a corn once a day for two weeks is said to be a sure cure. Wart cures are innumerable. Here are a few: Take a ham bone with a little meat remaining on it and rub the wart with it then bury the bone. As the meat decays the warts will dry up and finally there will be neither meat or warts left. Burn a letter written in ink on a saucer and blow away the ashes; a yellow, oily matter will remain. Anoint the warts with this several times a day until they disappear. Tie some pebbles up in a bag with a piece of silver money and throw the bag in the road; whoever finds the bag and keeps the money will get the warts also. Steal a piece of meat and use it as the ham bone is to be used; the meat must be stolen to be efficacious, and no one must see you steal it or bury it. The juice of the milk weed is a cure for warts; so is lunar caustic applied to them repeatedly. They may be removed by the use of a fine file; or a thread may be tied tightly around the wart, which will dry up and drop off in a few days. The last three cures we consider the best.

Mark Twain once told a story of a minister who had a call in the country. He had to ride nine miles over a rough road. The horse was skittish and the cart had no springs and the dominie was jolted up and down until he almost wished he was dead. The horse ran away at last and threw the minister out in the road. When found, he was asked if he was hurt. He said he did not know, but he felt as if his collar bone was broken. If he ever went to hell, he said, he wanted to ride there over that road, because he would be glad when he got there.

We clip the following from an exchange: "A traveling man reports that in one of the colored churches of Topeka, on Sunday night before the convention at Minneapolis, the preacher offered the following prayer: 'O, Lawd, we want you to go right to Minneapolis. Go to-night! Don't put it off till mawnin'. And, O, Lawd, go yourself. Don't send yo' Son; for with siah sellers up thar as Clarkson, Quay, Alger, Ingalls, etc., you will find it will be no place for boys.'

An exchange appropriately remarks, "When a man playfully points a gun at you, knock him down; don't stop to inquire whether it is loaded or not; knock him down. Don't be particular what you knock him down with, only see that it is properly done. If a coroner's inquest must be held, let it be on the other fellow—he won't be missed."

"The McKinley bill taxes the Bible that directs our way to Heaven, it imposes a tax on the hymn book out of which the redeemer's praises are sung. On the other hand, you can sit down with four friends, open a jack pot, and there's no tax on the cards. It is a tax on salvation, but it affords free seven up." Jim McKenzie.

Some people are always mixed on majorities and pluralities. A majority means more than half of all the votes cast for all the other candidates. Plurality means that the candidate has more votes than the next highest candidate, but does not have more than half the votes cast for all candidates.

A woman not a thousand miles from Richmond was, without doubt, the most furred female, last Sunday, in seven counties, when she discovered, after coming out of church, that her brand new hat was adorned with a tag, whereupon was inscribed the legend: "Bedecked to $2.75."

"What do you think of my new hat, John?"

"Oh, I don't know. What did the thing cost?"

"Nothing, I made it myself."

"By Jove! It's simply stunning, Mamie."

In a recently invented watch for the blind a small peg is set in the middle of each figure. When the hour hand reaches a given hour, the peg for that hour drops. The owner, when he wants to know the time, finds which peg is down and then counts back to XII.

The trials of Her Mother's Heart.

"Do I not always try my best to gratify your reasonable tastes and ambitions, my daughter?"

There was no reply, and the mother resumed, gently:

"If I were wealthy, Marie, I would spare no expense to provide you with all that heart could wish. But there is a limit to my power to do so. I can only exercise my best taste and judgment in the selection of such things as you may require for your personal apparel, and if they do not always please you, remember, Marie, that there are treasures of mind and heart that may be yours if you seek for them with earnest purpose, and they far outweigh the ephemeral trifles of one's outward adornment."

"That is all true enough, mother," answered the proud young girl, "but I look like a sardine in that hat!"—Chicago Tribune.

A Neglected Picture.

Ned (exultantly)—I tell you, old man, I think I've made an impression on Miss Plyte at last. I gave her my photograph yesterday and she told me this morning that she had stuck it in the corner of the mirror of her dressing-case.

Tom—You poor thing! Are you so ignorant as that? Don't you know that when a girl stands in front of her mirror she never looks at anything but herself?—Somerville Journal.

An Unpleasant Discovery.

Young Lady—Have you examined my piano?

Tuner—Yes, madam.

"What's the reason it won't make a sound?"

"Some one has lowered the soft pedal and nailed it down."—N. Y. Weekly.

A Point in Husbandry.

"Which weeds are the easiest to kill?" asked young Flickers of Farmer Sassafras, as he watched that good man at his work.

"Widow's weeds," replied the farmer.

"You only have to say, 'wilt thou,' and they wilt."—Detroit Free Press.

Hard Lines.

She—Last night I dreamt we were at Saratoga and stopping at one of the finest hotels.

He—Don't talk that way. Money is so scarce nowadays that we can't afford even to dream of going to Saratoga.—Texas Siftings.

A Slim Diet.

Guest—I haven't any appetite at all to-day.

Waiter—Not feelin' well, sah?

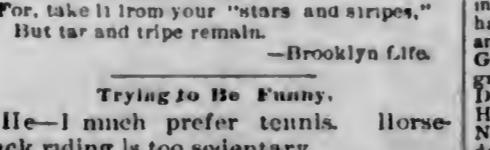

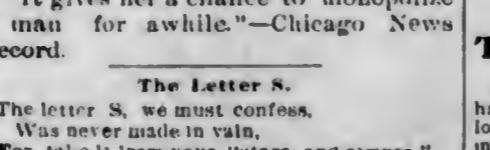

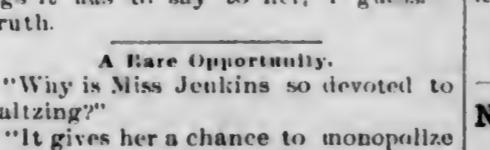

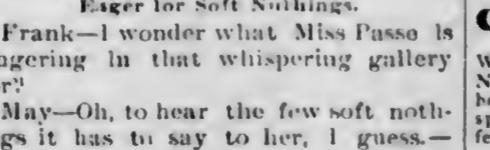

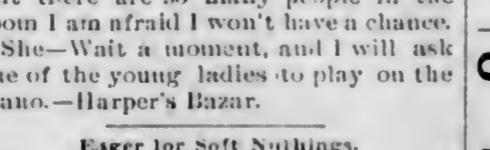

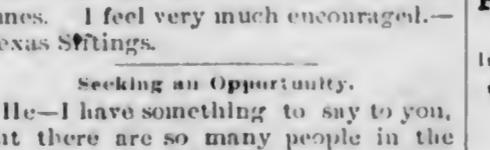

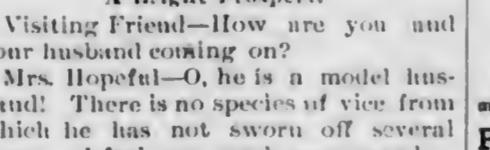

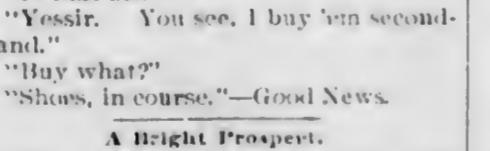

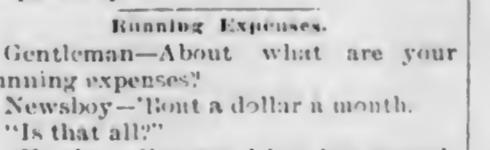

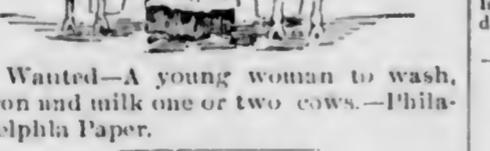

Guest—I'm about half sick. Can't move more than a mouthful. Bring me a couple of spring chickens.—N. Y. Weekly.

'Twas Ever Thus.

Robinson—They say when Mr. Smith first met his wife he was so much in love that he was afraid to speak for fear he'd betray himself.

Brown—Yes. Same way now when he comes home nights from the club.—Truth.

AN ADVERTISEMENT ILLUSTRATED.

Seeking an Opportunity.

He—I have something to say to you, but there are so many people in the room I am afraid I won't have a chance.

She—Wait a moment, and I will ask the one of the young ladies to play on the piano.—Harper's Bazaar.

Eager for Soft Nothings.

Frank—I wonder what Miss Passo is languishing in that whispering gallery for?

May—Oh, to hear the few soft nothings it has to say to her, I guess.

Truth—

A Rare Opportunity.

"Why is Miss Jenkins so devoted to walling?"

"It gives her a chance to monopolize a man for awhile."—Chicago News Record.

Trying to Be Funny.

He—I much prefer tennis. Horse back riding is too sedentary.
